

FAQ Page

---

Does Iron Re Dental have a provider network?

Iron Re Dental is an open network which means all providers are considered in-network.

Is there a missing tooth clause or waiting period?

No, we do not have a missing tooth clause or waiting period for our plans. Claims are paid on the seat date for service.

Does Iron Re Dental have a fee schedule?

We do not have a fee schedule. Instead, we pay the usual and customary rates for your area based on the provider zip code.

Does Iron Re Dental downgrade any fillings?

Posterior composite fillings are downgraded to the allowable amount for Amalgam fillings.

What is the plan period?

Both dental plans offered by Iron Re Dental are calendar year plans. This means that deductible and benefit amounts reset on January 1st.

What dental plans does Iron Re Dental offer?

Iron Re Dental offers two dental plans. The first plan offering consists of a $1,000 maximum benefit and a $50 deductible. The second plan offering is a $1,500 maximum benefit with a $25 deductible.

Does Iron Re Dental have a payer ID?

Iron Re Dental does not have a payer ID. Claims can be submitted by mail at our Birmingham address, through email (dental@ironrehealth.com), or fax (334-245-4960).